

CAMBRIDGE

TRADE & ACADEMIC HIGHLIGHTS

December 2017 - January 2018

www.cambridge.org/tradesummer2018

CONTENTS

FEATURED TITLES

Learning Law	3
Contemporary Australian Corporate Law	4
Employment, Labour and Industrial Law in Australia	5
Teaching Secondary Science: Theory and Practice	6
A History of American Crime Fiction	7
Mobile Phone Behavior	8
The Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes	9
Yatdjuligin: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nursing and Midwifery Care, 2nd Edition	10

ART

Art and Artists in China since 1949	11
-------------------------------------	----

ECONOMICS AND BUSINESS

Termites of the State: Why Complexity Leads to Inequality	11
---	----

ENGLISH LITERATURE

The Letters of Ernest Hemingway, Volume 4	11
---	----

HISTORY

How India Became Democratic: Citizenship and the Making of the Universal Franchise	12
--	----

LAW

Rules of Procedure at UN and Inter-Governmental Conferences, 3rd Edition	12
Christianity and Family Law: An Introduction	12

MANAGEMENT

A New History of Management	13
-----------------------------	----

MEDICINE

The Brain and Behavior: An Introduction to Behavioral Neuroanatomy	13
--	----

POLITICS

A Quiet Revolution?: The Rise of Women Managers, Business Owners and Leaders in the Arabian Gulf States	13
Women and the Egyptian Revolution: Engagement and Activism during the 2011 Arab Uprisings	14
Money for Votes: The Causes and Consequences of Electoral Clientelism in Africa	14
Deadly Clerics: Blocked Ambition and the Paths to Jihad	14

FEATURED TITLES

9781316642795

Paperback / VitalSource Bundle

1st Edition

AUD $114.95 / NZD $126.95

November 2017

Learning Law

Anthony Marinac

Central Queensland University

Brian Simpson

University of New England

Caroline Hart

University of Southern Queensland

Rhianna Chisholm

Curtin University

Jennifer Nielsen

Southern Cross University

Michael Brogan

University of Western Sydney

Learning Law is an indispensable guide for students beginning their law studies. It provides the foundational knowledge and skills required for the study and practice of law, and also instils in students a passion and excitement for the law. This text challenges students' traditional notions of the law and encourages them to think critically. Each chapter is supported by tools for self-assessment and self-reflection: review questions to revise complex concepts; 'Alternative Voices' breakout boxes, which provide a different perspective on each topic; and case studies, which illustrate how law qualifications can be applied in various settings, from traditional law firms to government and academia. Learning Law is written in an engaging and accessible style designed to demystify the law. This text is an essential and comprehensive resource that can be carried as a practical reference throughout a student's law studies.

KEY FEATURES

- Written in an engaging style that is designed to demystify the law and get students excited about their law studies and careers
- Includes a fully integrated interactive ebook, replete with useful links and videos as well as extension and revision questions that allow students to test their own knowledge as they go
- Encourages students to think critically about the future of the law profession by including an 'Alternative Voice' boxed feature for each chapter and 'Living Law' case studies that highlight the diversity of career opportunities available to law graduates

CONTENTS

Part I. Law, Lawyers and Justice:

1. Welcome to the law
2. History and justice
3. Parliaments and courts

Part II. Learning the Laws:

4. Categories of law
5. Law made by judges
6. Law made by parliaments

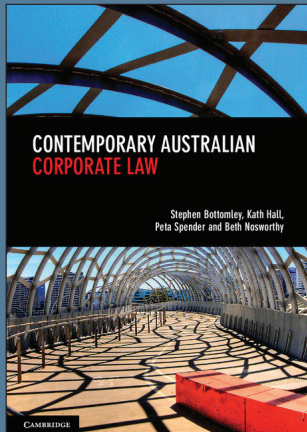

Part III. Research and Persuasion:

7. Frameworks for legal thinking
8. Analysing and persuading
9. Grappling with facts

Part IV. Profession and Community:

10. The ethical lawyer
11. Equality, difference and law
12. Lawyering in the digital world
13. Influencing the law.

FEATURED TITLES

9781316628270

Paperback

1st Edition

AUD $144.95 / NZD $159.95

November 2017

Contemporary Australian Corporate Law

Stephen Bottomley

Australian National University

Kath Hall

Australian National University

Peta Spender

Australian National University

Beth Nosworthy

University of Adelaide

Contemporary Australian Corporate Law provides an authoritative, contextual and critical analysis of Australian corporate and financial markets law, designed to engage today's LL.B. and JD students.

Written by leading corporate law scholars, the text provides a number of features including:

- a well-structured presentation of topics for Australian corporate law courses,
- consistent application of theory with discussion of corporate law principles (both theoretical and historical)
- comprehensive discussion of case law with modern examples
- integration of corporate law and corporate governance, all with clarity, insight and technical excellence.

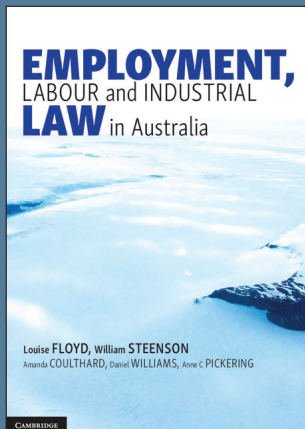

Central concepts are enhanced with dynamic and relevant discussions of corporate law in context, including debates relating to the role of corporations in society, the global convergence of corporate law as well as corporations and human rights.

Exploring the social, political and economic forces which shape modern corporations law, Contemporary Australian Corporate Law encourages a forward-thinking approach to understanding key concepts within the field.

KEY FEATURES

- Explains the rules, principles, doctrines and policies that, together, constitute corporate law in Australia to students taking their first course in corporate law
- Locates rules in their legal, social, economic and political context to provide deeper understanding and to recognise how corporations have become an integral part of the contemporary social fabric
- Authors experience of teaching corporate law for many years brings a logical order to the subject matter with clarity, insight and technical excellence

FEATURED TITLES

9781316622995

Paperback

1st Edition

AUD $139.95 / NZD $153.95

November 2017

Employment, Labour and Industrial Law in Australia

Louise Floyd

James Cook University

William Steenson

University of Technology Sydney

Amanda Coulthard

Bond University

Daniel Williams

Minter Ellison

Anne C. Pickering

University of Queensland

Employment, Labour and Industrial Law in Australia provides a comprehensive, current and accessible resource for the undergraduate and Juris Doctor student.

With a social and political background to the law, this text provides insightful legal analysis underscored by practical business experience, while exploring key principles through a close evaluation of laws and lively discussion of prominent cases.

Recognising the multi-faceted nature of the subject, the authors have included content on employment, labour and industrial law in the one text, while also presenting critical topics not often dealt with, namely:

- current and in-depth analysis of trade union regulation
- public work including the public sector, the judiciary and academics
- workplace health and safety including worker's compensation, bullying, anti-discrimination and taxation
- emerging issues including topics such as transnational and international employment law, migration and employment, as well as volunteers and work experience.

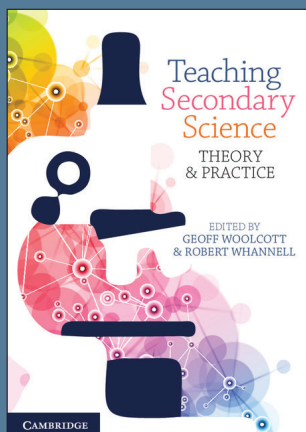

To maintain currency within this rapidly changing area of law, the text has a website which will include updates for any major developments in the field as well as responses to end-of-chapter questions.

Written by respected academics and practicing lawyers in the field, Employment, Labour and Industrial Law in Australia is a relevant and contemporary guide to this fascinating area of law.

KEY FEATURES

- Explores employment, labour and industrial law in one volume
- Contains current and in-depth analysis of trade union regulation
- Includes content on public sector, The Judiciary and academics, rarely covered in an undergraduate law text book

FEATURED TITLES

9781316636114

Paperback

1st Edition

AUD $89.95 / NZD $98.95

November 2017

Teaching Secondary Science

Theory and Practice

Edited by Geoff Woolcott and Robert Whannell

Teaching Secondary Science: Theory and Practice provides a dynamic approach to preparing preservice science teachers for practice. Divided into two parts — theory and practice — the text allows students to first become confident in the theory of teaching science before showing how this theory can be applied to practice through ideas for implementation, such as sample lesson plans. These examples span a variety of age levels and subject areas, allowing preservice teachers to adapt each exercise to suit their needs when they enter the classroom. Each chapter is supported by pedagogical features, including learning objectives, reflections, scenarios, key terms, questions, research topics and further readings. Written by leading science education researchers from universities across Australia, Teaching Secondary Science is a practical resource that will continue to inspire preservice teachers as they move from study into the classroom. This book includes a single-use twelve-month subscription to Cambridge Dynamic Science.

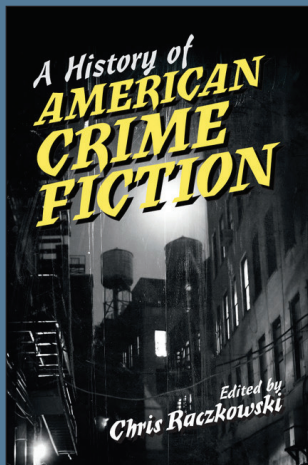

Geoff Woolcott is Associate Professor of Mathematics and Science Education at Southern Cross University, Australia. He has a broad range of successful experiences in primary, secondary and tertiary education, as well as a research background in science, mathematics and education.

Robert Whannell is a Senior Lecturer in STEM Education at the University of New England, Australia. He has taught physics, chemistry, mathematics and information processing technology to Year 12 level in both private and public secondary schools in Queensland for nearly twenty years. He has held positions as a Head of Department in Science and Mathematics, and ICT.

KEY FEATURES

- Brings together an expert team of authors comprising leading science education researchers and practicing teachers from across Australia
- Divides the theory and practice of teaching secondary science, allowing students to master the theory before learning how to implement it in their own teaching
- Fosters each preservice teacher's science teacher identity
- Provides practical examples across year levels and subject areas that students can adapt to use in their own teaching

FEATURED TITLES

9781107131019

Hardback

1st Edition

AUD $144.95 / NZD $159.95

January 2018

A History of American Crime Fiction

Edited by Chris Raczkowski

A History of American Crime Fiction places crime fiction within a context of aesthetic practices and experiments, intellectual concerns, and historical debates generally reserved for canonical literary history. Towards that end, the book is divided into sections that reflect the periods that commonly organise American literary history, with chapters highlighting crime fiction's reciprocal relationships with early American literature, romanticism, realism, modernism and postmodernism. It surveys everything from 17th-century execution sermons, the detective fiction of Harriet Spofford and T. S. Eliot's The Waste Land, to the films of David Lynch, HBO's The Sopranos, and the podcast Serial, while engaging a wide variety of critical methods. As a result, this book expands crime fiction's significance beyond the boundaries of popular genres and explores the symbiosis between crime fiction and canonical literature that sustains and energises both.

Chris Raczkowski is associate professor of English at the University of South Alabama. His work on American literature and culture has appeared in numerous academic journals and anthologies and he is currently at work on a manuscript on modernism and crime titled, sensibly enough, Criminal Modernism (forthcoming).

KEY FEATURES

- This book is divided into sections similar to those used when teaching canonical literary history in university English classes, making it useful for instructors of literary historical period based classes and scholars focusing on those periods
- Includes more extensive treatment of television crime fiction than previous histories, making it of interest non-academic readers
- Proposes a new view of crime fiction history as intertwined with canonical literary history, appealing to readers interested in both popular fiction forms and literary fiction forms

FEATURED TITLES

9781107561946

Paperback

1st Edition

AUD $39.95 / NZD $43.95

February 2017

Mobile Phone Behavior

Zheng Yan

State University of New York

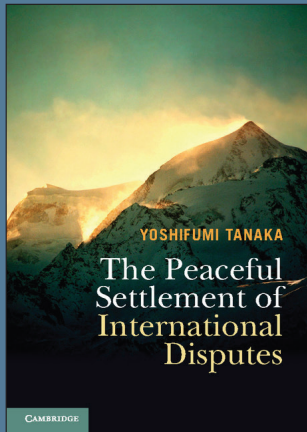

This book provides the first comprehensive introduction to the newly-emerging science of mobile phone behavior. It presents the unexpected complexity of human mobile phone behavior through four basic aspects of mobile phone usage (users, technologies, activities, and effects), and then explores four major domains of such behavior (medicine, business, education, and everyday life). Chapters open with thoughts on mobile phone usage and behavior from interviews with cell phone users, then present a series of scientific studies, synthesised knowledge, and real-life cases, concluding with complex but highly readable analyses of each aspect of mobile phone behavior. Readers should achieve two intellectual goals: gaining a usable knowledge of the complexity of mobile phone behaviour, and developing the skills to analyse the complexity of mobile phone usage — and further technological behaviors.

Zheng Yan is Associate Professor of Developmental Psychology at the State University of New York, Albany. He has a doctoral degree from Harvard University and previously lectured at the Harvard University Graduate School of Education. His previous publications include the Encyclopedia of Cyber Behavior (2012) and Encyclopedia of Mobile Phone Behavior (2015), and he has been a co-editor of the International Journal of Cyber Behavior, Psychology and Learning since 2012.

KEY FEATURES

- Appeals to mobile phone users and those who are curious about the effects of mobile phones on humans, because it reveals, for the first time, the unexpected complexity underlying daily mobile phone use in areas such as medicine, business, education, law, communication, transportation, and daily life
- Enables readers to not only understand mobile phone behavior but also to analyse it, by equipping them with a usable knowledge of the complexity of mobile phone behavior
- Challenges and expands readers' existing intuitive knowledge about mobile phone behavior by first presenting ordinary people's intuitive thinking, then following with a series of real-life cases, scientific studies, synthesised knowledge, comparative analyses, and, finally, complex thinking about mobile phone behavior

FEATURED TITLES

9781316615881

Paperback

1st Edition

AUD $72.95 / NZD $80.95

February 2018

The Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes

Yoshifumi Tanaka

University of Copenhagen

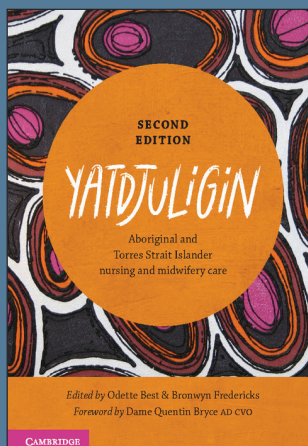

Addressing not only inter-state dispute settlement but also the settlement of disputes involving non-State actors, The Peaceful Settlement of International Disputes offers a clear and systematic overview of the procedures for dispute settlement in international law. In light of the diversification of dispute settlement procedures, traditional means of international dispute settlement are discussed alongside newly developing fields such as the dispute settlement system under the United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea, the WTO dispute settlement systems, the peaceful settlement of international environmental disputes, intra-state disputes, mixed arbitration, the United Nations Compensation Commission, and the World Bank Inspection Panel. Figures are used throughout the book to help the reader to better understand the procedures and institutions of international dispute settlement, and suggestions for further reading support exploration of relevant issues. Suitable for postgraduate law and international relations students studying dispute settlement in international law and conflict resolution, this book helps students to easily grasp key concepts and issues.

Yoshifumi Tanaka is Professor of International Law at the Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen. He has taught at several different universities and has published widely in the fields of peaceful settlement of international disputes, the law of the sea and international environmental law.

KEY FEATURES

- Enables students to easily grasp the key concepts and issues in international dispute resolution
- Newly developing fields are discussed alongside traditional means of international dispute settlement giving readers a comprehensive overview of the changing nature of the subject
- Figures are used throughout to facilitate easier understanding of the procedures and institutions of international dispute settlement

FEATURED TITLES

9781316642177

Paperback

2nd Edition

AUD $79.95 / NZD $87.95

December 2017

Yatdjuligin

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nursing and Midwifery Care

Edited by Odette Best and Bronwyn Fredericks

Yatdjuligin: Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nursing and Midwifery Care introduces students to the fundamentals of the health care of Indigenous Australians from the perspectives of both the patient and the professional. Designed for both non-Indigenous and Indigenous nurses and midwives who will work with Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander patients, this book addresses the relationship between Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander cultures and mainstream health services, and prepares students for practice in a variety of contexts.

Fully updated to reflect the latest research, this new edition includes new chapters on child health and mental health. Updated online resources provide lecturers with resources to support student learning.

Written by leading Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander nursing and midwifery academics and practising nurses, Yatdjuligin is an indispensable resource that encourages students to reflect on their values and attitudes towards Indigenous people and health.

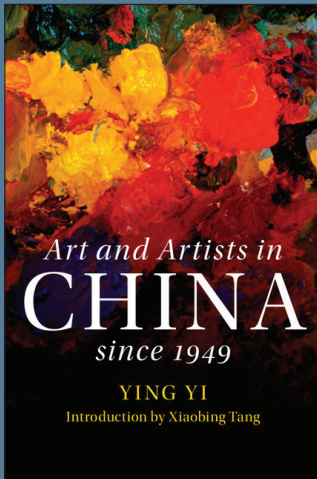

Odette Best is Associate Professor, School of Nursing and Midwifery at the University of Southern Queensland (Ipswich Campus).

Bronwyn Fredericks is Professor and Pro Vice-Chancellor (Indigenous Engagement) and BHP Billiton Mitsubishi Alliance Chair in Indigenous Engagement at Central Queensland University.

KEY FEATURES

- Written to reflect a key component of the Registered Nurse Standards for Practice
- Brings together team of leading Indigenous academics and practicing nurses and midwives
- Includes dynamic new chapters in the areas of mental health, child health and care of elders

ART

Art and Artists in China since 1949

Ying Yi, in collaboration with Xiaobing Tang

A lavishly illustrated study of the development of art and artists in China since 1949. The art of this period is of historical, political and cultural interest, being first used to promote the revolutionary cause, later to criticise and, more recently, charting changes that have taken place since 1978.

9781107024502 Hardback
1st Edition
AUD $110.95 / NZD $122.95
February 2018

Termites of the State

Why Complexity Leads to Inequality

Vito Tanzi

One of the world's leading public economists offers a sweeping account of modern economic development. In plain language it connects the extreme growth in income inequality; increasing complexity of government regulations; and the workings of political influence to explain the biggest issues facing the world economy today.

9781108420938 Hardback
1st Edition
AUD $39.95 / NZD $43.95
February 2018

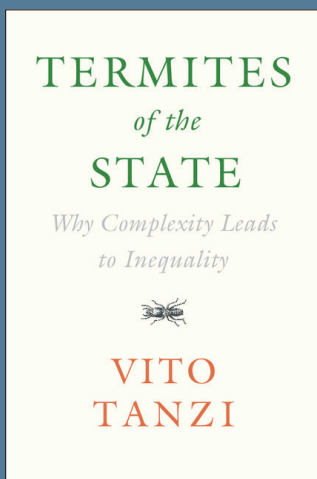

The Letters of Ernest Hemingway

Ernest Hemingway, Edited by Sandra Spanier and Miriam B. Mandel

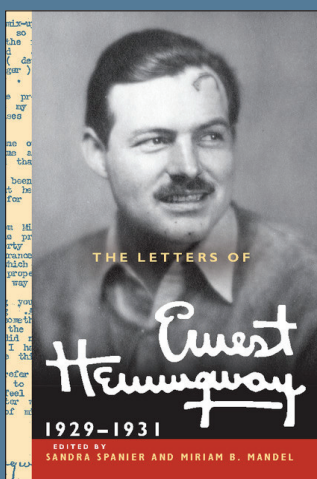

The letters, many previously unpublished, of Volume 4 (April 1929–1931) trace Hemingway's ascendancy to international renown. From the publication of A Farewell to Arms to the completion of his ground-breaking treatise on bullfighting, Death in the Afternoon, the letters constitute a rich account of the artist.

9780521897365 Hardback
1st Edition / Volume 4
AUD $70.95 / NZD $78.95
February 2018

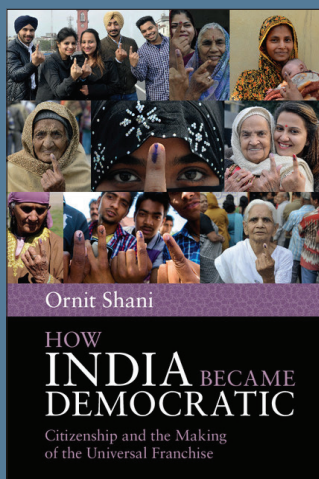

ECONOMICS & BUSINESS

ENGLISH LITERATURE

HISTORY

How India Became Democratic

Citizenship and the Making of the Universal Franchise

Ornit Shani

Shani explores the greatest experiment in democratic human history through the untold story of the creation of the electoral roll and universal adult franchise in the world's largest democracy: India. This ground-breaking study will be essential reading for all scholars and students of democracy, citizenship, South Asia and legal history.

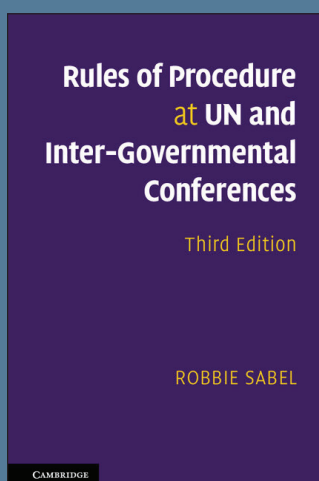

9781107673540 Paperback

1st Edition

AUD $46.95 / NZD $51.95

February 2018

LAW

Rules of Procedure at UN and Inter-Governmental Conferences

Robbie Sabel

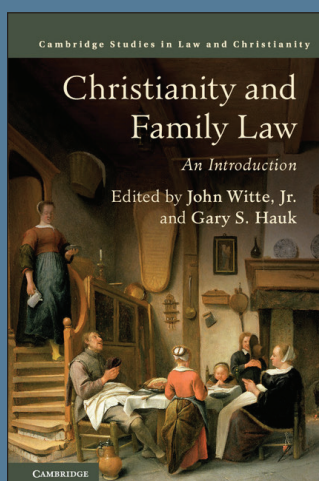

This third edition of an award-winning book provides a comprehensive manual to procedure and conduct of business at the UN General Assembly and at international conferences. This will be a standard reference book for UN and conference delegates as well as scholars and students of international law and international relations.

9781107172722 Hardback

3rd Edition

AUD $152.95 / NZD $168.95

February 2018

Christianity and Family Law

An Introduction

Edited by John Witte, Jr. and Gary S. Hauk

Analysing Christian influences on Western family law over the past two millennia, this volume explores marriage and divorce, women's and children's rights, marital property and inheritance, and human sexuality. In twenty-five lively and accessible chapters, readers are exposed to the enduring and evolving Christian norms and teachings on family life.

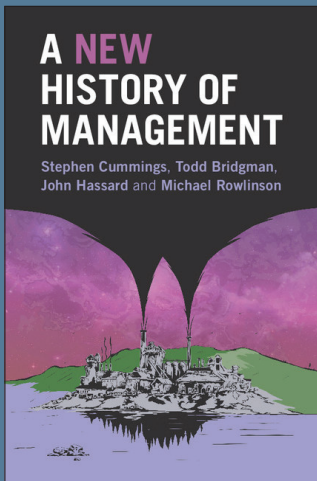

9781108401197 Paperback

1st Edition

AUD $54.95 / NZD $60.95

December 2017

MANAGEMENT

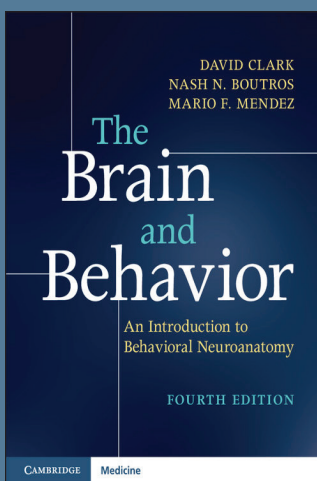

A New History of Management

Stephen Cummings, Todd Bridgman, John Hassard and Michael Rowlinson

Establishes a new and critical perspective on management by reassessing interpretations of the subject's 'founding fathers' and the role of history in the development of assumptions about what constitutes good management theory and practice. It is for graduate students, researchers and students of business, organisation, and management history.

9781316502907 Paperback
1st Edition
AUD $49.95 / NZD $53.95
September 2017

MEDICINE

The Brain and Behavior

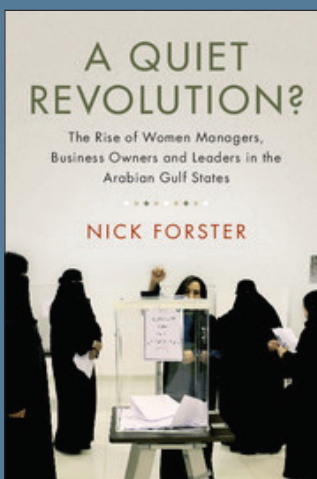

An Introduction to Behavioral Neuroanatomy

David Clark, Nash N. Boutros and Mario F. Mendez

Now in its fourth edition, The Brain and Behavior clearly and concisely introduces the field of the neurobiology of human behavior to a wide audience, from graduate students to professionals in the fields of psychology, psychiatry and neurology. This complex topic is made visually accessible through clear and focused illustrations.

9781316646939 Paperback
4th Edition
AUD $85.95 / NZD $94.95
February 2018

POLITICS

A Quiet Revolution

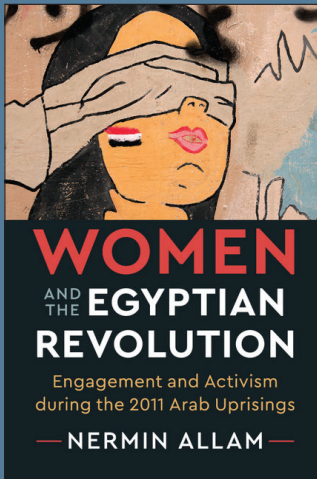

The Rise of Women Managers, Business Owners and Leaders in the Arabian Gulf States

Nick Forster

This book examines the changing roles of university educated professional women in the United Arab Emirates, Oman and the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia. It will be of interest to professionals, scholars and students of economic development, international management, leadership, gender studies, and Middle Eastern studies.

9781316507780 Paperback
1st Edition
AUD $68.95 / NZD $74.95
September 2017

POLITICS

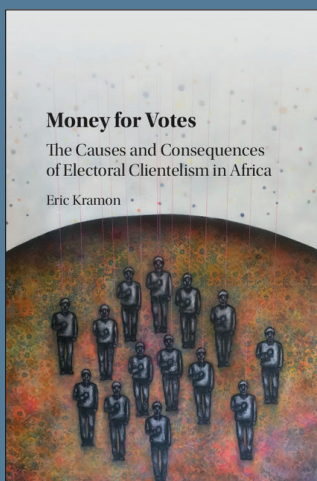

Women and the Egyptian Revolution

Engagement and Activism during the 2011 Arab Uprisings

Nermin Allam

This examination of women during and since the 2011 uprising in Egypt uncovers their voices and their experiences of revolutionary action. Allam analyses the history of women's political participation and reflects on the current situation in order to understand the dynamics of gender and women's rights in Egypt.

9781108434430 Paperback
1st Edition
AUD $41.95 / NZD $46.95
February 2018

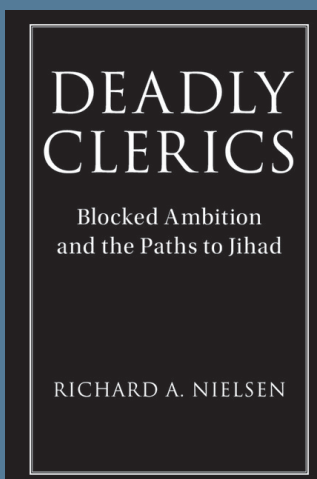

Money for Votes

The Causes and Consequences of Electoral Clientelism in Africa

Eric Kramon

Vote buying is common in low-income democracies, but its causes and consequences are not well understood. Drawing on evidence from Africa, this book explains why many politicians hand out money during elections, and examines the consequences of this strategy for voter behavior, ethnic politics, public goods provision, and democratic accountability.

9781107193727 Hardback
1st Edition
AUD $129.95 / NZD $142.95
January 2018

Deadly Clerics

Blocked Ambition and the Paths to Jihad

Richard A. Nielsen

Deadly Clerics explains why some Muslim clerics adopt the ideology of militant jihadism while most do not. The book explores multiple pathways of cleric radicalisation and shows that the interplay of academic, religious, and political institutions has influenced the rise of modern jihadism through a mechanism of blocked ambition.

9781108404051 Paperback
1st Edition
AUD $41.95 / NZD $46.95
January 2018

CONTACT US

To order, please contact:

Customer Service

P: (03) 8671 1400

F: (03) 9676 9966

E: enquiries@cambridge.edu.au

W: www.cambridge.org/academic

For title enquiries:

Marilyn Chee

Trade Sales Representative

P: (03) 8671 1436

E: mchee@cambridge.edu.au

If you no longer wish to receive any marketing material from us and would like to opt-out of our mailing list, please email academicmarketing@cambridge.edu.au

Prices are subject to change without notice.